Tasting Notes: The Pinot Noir grapes growing in the southern vineyards of the Sonoma Coast appellation provide good structure, with a pure and delicate body. On the nose, you are greeted with red fruit - currant and cranberry - lead to dark cherry, and notes reminiscent of late summer in a dark forest. The palate is greeted with delicate floral notes, cranberry and hints of cinnamon and nutmeg. While bright on first taste, this wine matures and develops into a dark and weighty Pinot Noir in front of you that will entice and intrigue from first sip to last.

What The Number 22 Signifies: N° 22 represents the number eleven twice, and 11 is Jean-Charles lucky number. N° 22 was chosen because this wine has twice the intensity, grandeur and charisma of most Pinot Noirs.

For Jean-Charles Boisset, the supple texture of a great Pinot Noir makes drinking it an almost INTIMATE experience. Earthy and powerful, N° 22 is a TUMULTUOUS riot of deep flavors. We think of it as insistent and INTENSE.
